⚠️ EARLY-WARNING: WHAT TO EXPECT

Disinformation on peace talks to end the war

China presented a 12-point peace plan to Moscow for “political resolution of the Ukraine crisis”. A joint statement has been signed by Chinese President Xi Jinping and President Vladimir Putin on 21 March 2023.

The increased circulation of disinformation portraying President Volodymyr Zelensky, Ukraine and its supporters as warmongers by not accepting the solutions proposed by the Chinese mediation is plausible.

Disinformation on the escalation of the conflict

After President Vladimir Putin announced on 25 March that Russia will station tactical nuclear weapons in Belarus, disinformation on an escalation of the conflict to neighbouring countries and speculations about nuclear strikes are likely to grow.

Disinformation on weapons delivery

Following tank consignments from Poland, Spain and the UK, the first deliveries of German Leopard 2 tanks also reached Ukraine. The provision of advanced weaponry from Western supporters is likely to continue feeding disinformation on massive deliveries, on military involvement of NATO on the ground or on Western countries being the “instigators of the conflict” with Ukraine as stated by Russian president, Vladimir Putin, in an interview with the Rossiya 1 channel on 26 March 2023.
